Saint Maria Goretti’s Story

One of the largest crowds ever assembled for a canonization—250,000—symbolized the reaction of millions touched by the simple story of Maria Goretti.

She was the daughter of a poor Italian tenant farmer, had no chance to go to school, never learned to read or write. When she made her First Communion not long before her death at age 12, she was one of the larger and somewhat backward members of the class.

On a hot afternoon in July, Maria was sitting at the top of the stairs of her house, mending a shirt. She was not quite 12 years old, but physically mature. A cart stopped outside, and a neighbor, Alessandro, 18 years old, ran up the stairs. He seized her and pulled her into a bedroom. She struggled and tried to call for help. “No, God does not wish it,” she cried out. “It is a sin. You would go to hell for it.” Alessandro began striking at her blindly with a long dagger.

She was taken to a hospital. Her last hours were marked by the usual simple compassion of the good—concern about where her mother would sleep, forgiveness of her murderer (she had been in fear of him, but did not say anything lest she cause trouble to his family), and her devout welcoming of Viaticum, her last Holy Communion. She died about 24 hours after the attack.

Her murderer was sentenced to 30 years in prison. For a long time he was unrepentant and surly. One night he had a dream or vision of Maria gathering flowers and offering them to him. His life changed. When he was released after 27 years, his first act was to go to beg the forgiveness of Maria’s mother.

Devotion to the young martyr grew, miracles were worked, and in less than half a century she was canonized. At her beatification in 1947, her mother (then 82), two sisters and a brother appeared with Pope Pius XII on the balcony of St. Peter’s. Three years later, at her canonization, a 66-year-old Alessandro Serenelli knelt among the quarter-million people and cried tears of joy.

WHAT WE DO

Saint Patrick

Parish Mission Statement

The parish of St. Patrick is a community of faith, composed of various ethnic, linguistic, and racial backgrounds. It is deeply rooted in the Roman Catholic family of believers. The make-up of the parish reflects the catholicity of the church itself. We gather to be nourished by Word and Sacrament, to grow in the life of the gospel by our own witness and service in the name of Jesus Christ. We seek to deepen our faith, hope and charity by ongoing learning and a vibrant sharing in communion and mission, reaching out to one another and offering hospitality to all without exception. We desire to be led by the Spirit, the Scriptures and Church teaching so that we may give evidence of an evangelical response to the ever changing needs of the world at large and our own locale.

La Historia de Santa Maria Goretti

Unas de las multitudes más grandes jamás reunidas para una canonización — 250,000 — simboliza la reacción de millones por la simple historia de María Goretti.

Ella era la hija de un pobre italiano granjero de arrendatario, no tuvo ninguna oportunidad de ir a la escuela, nunca aprendió a leer o escribir. Cuando hizo su primera comunión poco antes de su muerte a los 12 años, fue una de las miembros de la clase más grandes y un poco atrasada.

En una calurosa tarde de julio, María estaba sentada en la parte superior de las escaleras de su casa, remendando una camisa. No tenía más de 12 años, pero físicamente madura. Un carro de fuera paró, y un vecino, Alessandro, de 18 años, corrió hacia las escaleras, la agarró y la metió en un dormitorio. Ella luchó y trató de pedir ayuda. “No, Dios no lo desea,” ella clamó. “Es un pecado. Irás al infierno por esto.” Alessandro comenzó a apuñalarla ciegamente con un puñal largo.

Fue trasladada a un hospital. Sus últimas horas fueron marcadas por la simple compasión del bien — la preocupación por donde su madre iba a dormir, el perdón de su asesino (ella había estado temerosa de él, pero no había dicho nada para que no causarle problemas a su familia), y su devoción de viático, su última comunión. Murió cerca de 24 horas después del ataque.

Su asesino fue condenado a 30 años de prisión. Durante mucho tiempo fue impotente y arisco. Una noche tuvo un sueño o visión de María recogiendo flores y ofreciéndole a él. Su vida cambió. Cuando fue puesto en libertad después de 27 años, su primer acto fue ir a pedir el perdón de su asesino (ella había estado temerosa de él, pero no había dicho nada para que no causarle problemas a su familia), y su devoción de viático, su última comunión. Murió cerca de 24 horas después del ataque.

Creció con la devoción a la joven mártir, los milagros hechos, y en menos de medio siglo fue canonizada. A su beatificación en 1947, su madre (entonces de 82 años), dos hermanas y un hermano se出现了 con el Papa Pius XII en el balcón de San Pedro. Tres años más tarde, para el 50.000 — simboliza la reacción de millones por la simple historia de María Goretti.
